§61-2-28. Domestic violence — criminal acts

(a) Domestic battery. — Any person who unlawfully and intentionally makes physical contact of an insulting or provoking nature with his or her family or household member, or unlawfully and intentionally causes physical harm to his or her family or household member, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in jail for not more than twelve months or fined not more than $500, or both fined and confined.

Facts:

On Monday, December 14, 2020 at approximately 0028 hours, I, Patrol Officer J. S. Carey, responded to #303 South Mimosa Lane, Bridgeport, WV 26330, in reference to a domestic complaint. It was stated that a Rodney Underwood, later referred to as the defendant, had shoved the caller, Daniella Galotti, later referred to as the victim. The victim advised 911 that she was currently hiding under the porch of #301 South Mimosa Lane, and that the defendant was still inside the residence. I arrived on scene at approximately 0033 hours and subsequently made contact with the defendant who had just exited the residence from the front door. The defendant began to explain what had occurred. At this time, the victim, walked around the row of buildings and began speaking with Patrol Officer Manson.

The defendant stated that he was unsure what the argument was over but that they began pushing and shoving each other. The defendant stated that they had been drinking liquor heavily throughout the night.

Following this interaction, I switched positions with Patrol Officer Manson, and began speaking to the victim. The victim stated that they got into a verbal argument because their dog had eaten chocolate and she was concerned about the health of the dog. The victim wanted to call her ex husband because she believed he would know what to do about the dog. The victim continued to state that this upset the defendant, and he began shoving her and took the phone from her. The victim stated that she did slap him in an attempt to defend herself. The victim stated that the defendant through on the counter and then onto the couch. While on the couch, the victim stated that the defendant squeezed her around the ribs hard, hurting her.

Following this interaction, I approached the defendant and placed him into custody for Domestic Battery. The defendant was transported to the Bridgeport Police Department for processing. Following this, the defendant was transported to the North Central Regional jail to await arraignment.

Upon conviction thereof the person shall be confined in jail for a period of not less than one day nor more than one year, which jail term shall include actual confinement of not less than twenty-four hours, and shall be fined not less than $250 nor more than $2,000.

FACTS CONTINUED:

Upon arrival I located the vehicle and was advised by a male subject that his ex-wife (Daniella Galotti) had been driving the vehicle and was just involved in a domestic with her ex-boyfriend (Rodney Wade Underwood Jr.). I then made contact with Galotti inside her residence. Galotti advised that Underwood came to her residence on a prior date without her knowledge and took a check from her mail. Galotti stated Underwood called by phone her on this date and advised her that he had the check at Super 8 where he was staying located at 108 Barnetts Run Road in Bridgeport, WV in Harrison County. Underwood advised Galotti she could come that location and retrieve her check. Galotti stated when she went to Super 8 to retrieve her check, the two become involved in a physical domestic. Underwood was currently out on bond for a previous domestic battery charge against Galotti and was to have no contact with her.
